

The Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom (FNF) occupies the liberal position in the pluralistic setup of the political foundations in Germany. The Foundation's work focuses on the core values of freedom and responsibility. Through its projects FNF contribute to a world in which all people can live in freedom, human dignity and peace. Together with its partners - liberal political parties, think tanks and other non-governmental organisations - FNF supports the emergence of democratic institutions based on the rule of law, and the development of a market economy. By promoting well proven liberal concepts FNF also contribute to increasing people's opportunities to work for their own prosperity.

FNF association with Sri Lanka is over four decades old. The Foundation's work in Sri Lanka centres on:

- Promoting rule of law and economic freedom
- Training candidates, young politicians and future leaders
- Strengthening moderate political organizations in order to counteract radicalisation and polarisation of politics in Sri Lanka

With partner, Centre for Policy Alternatives (CPA), FNF work on constitutional concepts for strengthening the democratic process in Sri Lanka. Through close political contacts to liberal politicians from various parties, liberal policies are introduced into the political process.

Together with the Institute for Democracy and Leadership (IDL), FNF has inspired the creation of Liberal Youth Guilds (LYGs) in the entire country during the last few years. Together with the Liberal Academy for Political Leadership (LAPL), FNF offer political education to young adults and aspiring politicians to organise themselves in a democratic way.

Along with its partner Business Development Services (BDS) Foundation, focuses on the integration of the
